

The Ninth English Trifle!

Friday, May 30 through Sunday, June 1, 2025

English Trifle has always been held over Memorial Day weekend, but for 2025 that has proven to be impossible. Trifle will start Friday, May 30 with a late afternoon arrival and will end Sunday, June 1, after lunch. We will be at last year's location, The Claggett Center, 3035 Buckeystown Pike, Adamstown, MD 21710 (a few miles south of Frederick). We will dance Friday afternoon and evening, all day Saturday, and Sunday morning. (2026 Trifle will return to its usual calendar location – Memorial Day weekend, Saturday to Monday.)

Our callers for 2025 are Melissa Running and David Millstone, charming, knowledgeable, and skillful dance leaders. This year our keyboard players are Liz Donaldson and Kathy Talvitie. Violin and viola virtuosas are Tina Chancey and Elke Baker. Multi-instrumentalist Paul Oorts will add mandolin, banjo and concertina to the mix, with flutist Carrie Rose and cellist Sophie Chang adding brilliant high notes and lower register sonorities. And The Sound Guy, Jamie Platt, will work his incomparable magic.

All meals (and tea/coffee and snacks) are included and will be served cafeteria style. The Dining Hall features round tables and comfortable chairs.

The Claggett Center has made special arrangements to fit us into their schedule, and therefore we will occupy a mix of housing arrangements. We have a limited number of rooms in the Inn, with queen beds, for an additional $50 per room ($25 per person). If we are unable to assign you to the Inn, we will refund the additional fee. Other accommodations are "cottages" with two single beds and shared bathrooms, and the dorm-like facilities in Powell Hall. Please indicate if you are find stairs difficult, as Powell Hall does not have an elevator.

Use a separate form for each registrant. Food or sweeper fellowships ($220) may be available. Contact us through the website.
